The Pastor's Pen

On the first Sunday I was here, I asked the congregation to turn in their Bibles to Jeremiah 33:3, that I had been meditating upon that verse, and asked them to do so as well. [Thus says the Lord:] "3 Call to me and I will answer you, and will tell you great and hidden things that you have not known."

I hope you are praying for God to show us hidden things we have not known. The danger in that prayer is that God may indeed answer it. That God may show us things that we have not known, that are new to us, that require us to change. This brings to mind the story of the old minister talking to the young minister.

Old: "You know the seven last words of Christ, don't ya?"

Young: "Of course!"

Old: "Do you know the seven last words of the church?"

Young: "Noooo..."

Old: Well, sometimes it goes like this: "We've never done it that way before." And sometimes like this: "That's the way we've always done it." Depending on which one suits their argument better.

I know change is difficult and sometimes uncomfortable. As we begin our season of ministry together and are confronted with the possibility of change, I want to offer two definitions that I find helpful. The first is habit. A habit is something you do, and you do it a particular way 'cause that's the way you've always done it. Next, tradition. A tradition is something you do, and you do it a particular way 'cause that's the way you've always done it, and you know why. You have a reason for it. What you do and how you do it has special meaning. As we go forward, I hope we will agree to talk about changing habits and celebrating traditions.

My friends, if coming to church is just a habit, if putting something in the offering plate is just a habit, if singing the hymns is just a habit, then you'll find it really hard to stand firm and hold fast. If all this is just a habit, let me tell you then that the rock of ages will seem really slippery when the storms of life come. Habits don't hold fast. Habits don't have much gripping power.

If, however, you come in response to God's call, if you are here and you know why, if your actions have meaning and purpose, if you come to love God and to offer yourself to him, then, as Paul says in 2 Thessalonians 2:17, you will be strengthened in every good work and word. And then you will find it easy to hold firm and stand fast.

Friends, change is happening at Saint Paul whether we want it to or not. We have a new pastor and a new choir director. These changes are a bit scary. At the same time, this means that God is offering us new opportunities.

Earlier, I said: "I hope you are praying for God to show us hidden things we have not known." But that's not all that God said. God said: "3 Call to me and I will answer you, and will tell you great and hidden things that you have not known." God isn't just waiting to show us new things. God has great things that we have not known in store. So I ask you, prepare your heart and mind for new things. Be ready to step forward to do small things, large things, great and hidden things!

Be praying! Be ready! God has great and hidden things waiting for us!

Preschool Readers Needed!

One of the most fun ministries of this church is our wonderful preschool. For many years now, our congregation has supported the preschool by providing readers for the children. Readers will read to their assigned class every other week, on Tuesdays, at either 11:15am or 11:30am, for 5 to 10 minutes. The children absolutely love their readers and our readers get so much joy interacting with these precious children.

We are in need of TWO Regular readers and a few who would be willing to substitute. IF one of our regular readers has a conflict for their regular time, they may contact one of the subs on the list to help out that week. Books from which you read may be obtained from the public library, your own children's book library, or from what the preschool has available.

The reading program follows the District 7 academic calendar. We hope to start reading on Tuesday, August 23, and will continue until December 6.

Will you help? Please contact Barbara Barnes at barbara.barnes@charter.net or 864-583-4192 to volunteer or get more information.

Epworth Is Our Ministry! Where do children go when DSS has taken them from their families because of abuse or neglect? Epworth is currently serving 354 children and families through their Residential and Independent Living programs, statewide Foster Care program, the Epworth Center for Counseling, the Early Intervention Center, and prevention services. Each of these children have found refuge in the ministry we share as United Methodists in SC. Epworth Children's Home has been welcoming children in Christ's name for 126 years through the generous support of churches like ours! We will participate in the annual Work Day Offering on Sunday, September 11th, to benefit the children who are served by Epworth. Please be in prayerful consideration of what God is calling you to give to this valuable and life changing ministry. For more information about Epworth Children's Home, visit www.epworthchildrenshome.org or find them on social media.

Let Us Welcome Our New Music Director, Charlie Faris!

Please join the SPRC and Choir in welcoming our new Music Director - Charlie Faris. Charlie comes to Saint Paul with a degree in music from Winthrop University. He has a background in church choral singing and leading and has been the choral teacher at Chesnee High School for the past several years.

Charlie brings his experience and his energy to our church family and we are very excited about what lies ahead for us in the future for our music ministry under his guidance.

Welcome Charlie!
