The Missions and Outreach Committee leads the church in demonstrating the love of Christ through service, compassion, evangelism, and mission opportunities that transform lives both locally and globally. The committee equips the congregation to become the hands and feet of Christ in the community and beyond.

1. Lead the Church in Local and Global Mission

The committee identifies and coordinates mission opportunities that address spiritual and physical needs.

- Supporting local community ministries
- Participating in United Methodist mission initiatives
- Organizing mission trips and service projects
- Responding to disaster relief opportunities
- Partnering with local nonprofit organizations and schools

2. Encourage Congregational Participation in Mission

The committee helps every member discover opportunities to serve.

- Recruiting volunteers
- Promoting hands-on mission experiences
- Encouraging all age groups to participate
- Recognizing and celebrating mission involvement
- Creating opportunities for families to serve together

3. Support Compassion Ministries

The committee leads ministries that meet practical needs while sharing Christ's love.

- Food and clothing ministries
- Homebound and nursing home visitation
- Community assistance programs
- School partnerships
- Emergency response and crisis assistance

4. Promote Evangelism Through Service

Mission is not only meeting needs but also sharing the hope of Christ through relationships and witness.

- Building relationships within the community
- Welcoming newcomers into the life of the church
- Supporting outreach events
- Encouraging members to share their faith
- Demonstrating Christ's love through acts of service

5. Educate the Congregation About Mission

The committee helps members understand the church's mission and their role in it.

- Sharing stories of mission impact
- Promoting United Methodist mission opportunities
- Educating members about global and local needs
- Encouraging financial support for missions
- Inspiring a lifelong commitment to Christian service
