The Worship Committee plans, supports, and enriches the worship life of the congregation so that every worship service glorifies God, proclaims the Gospel, and helps people grow as disciples of Jesus Christ. The committee focuses on creating an environment where people can encounter God through worship.

1. Plan Meaningful and Christ-Centered Worship

The Worship Committee works with the pastor to ensure worship services are thoughtful, engaging, and rooted in Scripture.

- Planning worship themes and seasonal emphasis
- Coordinating special worship services
- Supporting the pastor's worship planning
- Maintaining consistency with United Methodist worship traditions
- Ensuring worship reflects the church's mission and vision

2. Prepare the Worship Environment

The committee helps create a welcoming and reverent atmosphere for worship.

- Preparing the sanctuary for worship
- Coordinating altar flowers and seasonal decorations
- Selecting and changing liturgical colors and paraments
- Preparing the Communion table and baptismal font
- Ensuring the worship space is attractive, functional, and inviting

3. Coordinate Worship Volunteers

The Worship Committee recruits, trains, and schedules those who serve during worship.

- Ushers and greeters
- Liturgists and Scripture readers
- Acolytes
- Communion stewards
- Hospitality and welcome teams

4. Support Music and Worship Arts

The committee works with the music ministry to enhance the worship experience.

- Supporting the choir and musicians
- Encouraging a variety of worship arts
- Coordinating special music and seasonal presentations
- Supporting audio, visual, and livestream ministries
- Ensuring music supports the worship theme and congregation's participation

5. Evaluate and Improve Worship

The committee continually seeks ways to strengthen the congregation's worship experience.

- Gathering feedback from the congregation
- Reviewing attendance and participation
- Evaluating special services
- Recommending improvements
- Helping worship remain welcoming, relevant, and spiritually meaningful
